1- About the department

The Department of Social Work at Safa College was established in 2013. Currently, the department offers a full-time BSW (Bachelor of Social Work) programme over six semesters under the guidance of enthusiastic faculties. Aside from core courses, the programme includes exposure visits, field work, rural camp, and project work. The department also provides certificate/add-on courses to students, for developing interpersonal skills and human values. The department aspires to be an inspiration in the development of social workers for the advancement of accountability and empowerment.

2- Vision and Mission

Vision: The Department of Social Work aspires to be a transforming force that gives students the perseverance, competence, and ability to actively contribute to societal developments.

Mission:

- To deliver a comprehensive and thorough curriculum that helps students to practice critical thinking, self-reflection and community engagement.
- Establish complete awareness among students about societal changes and issues through experiential learning

4- Department Club

- Name of the club : GENDER CLUB
- Faculty coordinator : RISWANUL HAQUE P
- Student coordinator : MURSINA
- Objectives

1. The Gender Club envisions students as responsible leaders who can create an environment where all genders are treated with dignity and respect. By nurturing leadership qualities in students, the club empowers them to become advocates for gender equality both within their educational institutions and in the broader community. This vision is grounded in the belief that students, as future leaders, have the potential to shape societal norms and foster inclusive environments. The club provides students with the tools and knowledge necessary to understand and address gender issues, encouraging them to take an active role in promoting gender equality and respect in all areas of life.

2. Through its activities, the club aims to teach gender awareness and establish social standards that cherish humanity regardless of gender. These activities include workshops, discussions, and campaigns that educate participants about gender issues and challenge stereotypes. By fostering open dialogues about gender, the club encourages participants to critically examine their own beliefs and behaviours. This educational approach helps establish new social standards that value every individual, regardless of gender, and promote a culture of empathy, understanding, and respect. The club's activities are designed to be inclusive and engaging; ensuring that all members feel valued and heard.
3. The club promotes an integrated and interdisciplinary approach to studying the social and cultural conceptions of gender. This means that gender issues are explored from various perspectives, including sociology, psychology, history, and literature. By integrating different disciplines, the club provides a comprehensive understanding of how gender shapes and is shaped by societal and cultural forces. This interdisciplinary approach encourages students to think critically and make connections between different fields of study, enhancing their overall understanding of gender issues. By promoting this holistic view, the Gender Club aims to equip students with the skills and knowledge necessary to address complex gender-related challenges in society.

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCE

Affiliated to University of Calicut | Recognised by UGC 2(f) | An ISO 9001-2015 Certified

The Gender Club, in association with the Department of Social Work at Safa College of Arts and Science, Pookkattiri, organized a significant student gathering to address the recent atrocities against women in India. Held on August 3, 2023, at 1:45 PM in the college amphitheatre, the event aimed to raise awareness and foster a collective response to gender-based violence.

The program was inaugurated by Dr. P.V. Nidhin, the Principal of Safa College of Arts and Science, Pookkattiri, underscoring the institution's commitment to addressing such critical issues. The relevance of this gathering cannot be overstated, as it brought together students, faculty members, and Gender Club leaders to discuss and confront the alarming rise in gender-based violence. By providing a platform for open dialogue and reflection, the event aimed to educate and empower participants to become proactive in combating gender inequalities and supporting victims of violence.

5- Department anti ragging squad

An anti-ragging squad within a department typically comprises faculty members and senior students tasked with ensuring a safe and respectful environment, free from harassment or bullying. The squad actively monitors and addresses any instances of ragging, conducts awareness programs, and maintains vigilance to safeguard students' well-being.

List of anti ragging students:

- SHIBAN
- AJNA

6- Department senator system

The Department Senator system involves elected student representatives who advocate for the student body's interests and concerns within the department. They serve as a bridge between students and faculty, organizing events, gathering feedback, and addressing issues to enhance departmental cohesion and student experience.

9. Tutor meeting

Tutor meetings are scheduled sessions where tutors, typically faculty members or experienced students, meet with their assigned students to provide academic support, guidance, and feedback. The primary purpose of these meetings is to enhance the learning experience and academic performance of students by addressing their individual needs and challenges.

Objectives

The objectives of tutor meetings include clarifying concepts, reviewing assignments, discussing study strategies, and addressing any difficulties the students may encounter in their coursework. These meetings also serve to build a supportive relationship between tutors and students, fostering a conducive learning environment.

Typically, tutor meetings are scheduled based on the availability of both the tutor and the student, often once or twice a week depending on the intensity of the course or the level of assistance needed. The total number of meetings in a month can vary, but it is usually around four to eight sessions, ensuring consistent support throughout the academic term. Overall, tutor meetings aim to promote academic success, encourage student engagement, and provide personalized guidance tailored to each student's learning journey.

Session on Leadership skills

The session on leadership led by Ms. Anseera Thasmi was instrumental in equipping first-year BSW students with foundational knowledge and skills essential for effective leadership in Social Work. It fostered a spirit of initiative, collaboration, and ethical responsibility among participants, laying a solid groundwork for their future academic and professional pursuits.

Session on time management

The session on time management led by Mr. Riswanul Haque P was instrumental in equipping first-year BSW students with essential skills and strategies for effective time management. It provided them with practical tools and techniques to navigate their academic journey successfully while maintaining a healthy work-life balance.

The Department of Social Work at Safa CAS, in collaboration with the Student Alliance for Advancement of Social Work (SWASA) and ASAP Community Skill Park (CSP), Tavanur, organized a comprehensive "Get Work Readiness Ready Programme" over three days from January 23rd to 25th, 2024. This initiative aimed at equipping final-year students with the necessary skills and knowledge to enhance their employability and readiness for entering the workforce

Self-Resilience

On January 10th at 2:00 PM, a self-resilience session was conducted for social work students at Safa College in the AV Hall. The session aimed to equip students with strategies to enhance their resilience in facing challenges both personally and professionally. Led by experienced social work practitioners, the session covered topics such as stress management, emotional regulation, and maintaining well-being in high-pressure environments. Attendees actively participated in interactive exercises and discussions, gaining valuable insights into fostering resilience amidst the demands of social work practice. Overall, the event provided an enriching opportunity for students to develop crucial skills essential for their future careers in the field of social work.

Microsoft Office Training for Social Work Students

On December 12, 2024, social work students at Safa College participated in a comprehensive training session on Microsoft Office. This tailored program equipped students with essential skills in using MS Office tools to enhance their field work reporting capabilities. The training covered practical applications such as creating detailed reports, organizing data effectively, and utilizing proficiency in producing impactful reports that support community welfare initiatives. The session not only fostered technical competence but also emphasized the importance of utilizing technology to amplify social work efforts and promote sustainable community development.

Community Camp

From September 11 to September 15, 2023, social work students participated in the HAMSATH Community Camp held at Avayal, Meenangadi, in collaboration with OISCA International Wayanad. This immersive experience provided students with a unique opportunity to engage directly with local communities and contribute to sustainable development initiatives. Activities included environmental conservation projects, community health outreach programs, and educational workshops aimed at empowering residents with knowledge and skills. Students interacted closely with OISCA International Wayanad staff and community members, gaining practical insights into grassroots development strategies and cross-cultural communication. Through this collaborative effort, students not only applied theoretical concepts in a practical context but also strengthened their commitment to social justice and community well-being, aligning with the core values of social work practice.

Field work

From January 29 to February 17, 2024, social work students engaged in field work at various agencies dedicated to social welfare. During this period, students actively participated in a range of hands-on activities aimed at addressing community needs and enhancing client well-being. They collaborated with professionals in diverse settings such as shelters for the homeless, counseling centers for at-risk youth, and elder care facilities. Students gained practical experience in conducting client assessments, developing intervention plans, and advocating for marginalized populations. Through these placements, they applied classroom learning to real-world challenges, honed their communication and problem-solving skills, and deepened their understanding of ethical practices in social work. This field work not only enriched their academic experience but also prepared them for future roles as compassionate and competent social work professionals dedicated to creating positive social change.

Mini Research

From September 11 to September 15, 2023, social work students conducted a mini-research project focused on achieving carbon neutrality within Meenangadi Gram Panchayat during their community camp. This initiative was undertaken in collaboration with local stakeholders and aimed to assess current carbon emissions, identify sources of greenhouse gases, and propose strategies for mitigation and sustainable development. Students utilized research methodologies such as surveys, interviews with community members and experts, and data analysis to gather insights into the environmental footprint of the Panchayat. The findings from this research will contribute to the development of actionable recommendations for promoting eco-friendly practices, reducing carbon emissions, and fostering community resilience to climate change. This project not only provided students with valuable research experience but also underscored their commitment to environmental stewardship and social responsibility in their roles as future social work professionals.

Critical Thinking Workshop

On September 21, 2023, a critical thinking workshop was conducted for Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) students at Safa College, led by Dr. Anshad Vk. The workshop aimed to enhance students' analytical and problem-solving skills essential for effective social work practice. Dr. Anshad Vk, renowned for his expertise in critical thinking methodologies, guided students through interactive sessions that included case studies, group discussions, and practical exercises. The workshop emphasized the importance of evidence-based reasoning, logical argumentation, and considering multiple perspectives in decision-making processes within social work contexts. Students actively engaged in exploring complex scenarios, applying critical thinking frameworks, and developing strategies to address real-world challenges faced by individuals and communities. The session concluded with reflections on how these newly acquired skills can be integrated into their professional practice to foster positive social change and empower marginalized populations. Overall, the workshop provided a valuable platform for Safa College BSW students to cultivate their critical thinking abilities under the guidance of Dr. Anshad Vk's expertise.

Discussion on social work theories and ethics

On August 3, 2023, a compelling discussion on social work theories and ethics was conducted at Safa College, led by Assistant Professor Bindhiya Babu from the Department of Social Work. The session delved into foundational theories such as systems theory, strengths perspective, and ecological perspective, emphasizing their relevance in understanding and addressing diverse client needs and social issues. Additionally, ethical principles and dilemmas inherent in social work practice were critically examined, guiding students on navigating complexities with integrity and professionalism. Assistant Professor Bindhiya Babu skillfully engaged students through interactive dialogue, case studies, and reflective exercises, fostering a deepened understanding of ethical decision-making and its implications for effective social work intervention. The session concluded with a renewed commitment among students to uphold ethical standards while applying theoretical frameworks to positively impact individuals and communities in need.

19. PTA Meeting –

During the academic year 2023-24, the Parent-Teacher Association (PTA) for the Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) students held several key meetings at the beginning of each semester. The initial meeting, conducted at the start of the Fall Semester, focused on setting academic goals, reviewing curriculum changes, and establishing expectations for both students and parents. This session aimed to align the PTA's objectives with the academic needs of the students and provided a platform to discuss upcoming fieldwork opportunities and resources. Each meeting played a vital role in fostering communication between parents and the institution, addressing student needs, and continuously improving the educational experience.

21. Collaboration and MOU

During the academic year 2023-24, our institution established five-year collaborations with Ideal College and KMCT Arts and Science College through Memorandums of Understanding (MOUs). These agreements focus on faculty exchanges, and shared academic resources. Faculty from both institutions will have the opportunity to teach and engage in research across campuses, enhancing educational experiences and professional development. The partnerships aim to integrate diverse teaching methods and expand academic and research opportunities, ultimately benefiting both students and faculty by fostering a collaborative and enriched learning environment.

Conclusion- The Department of Social Work at Safa College of Arts and Science has had a remarkable academic year in 2023-24, marked by significant achievements and advancements. The department's commitment to fostering holistic development in students is evident through its diverse programs, including extensive fieldwork, engaging community camps, and comprehensive skill-building workshops. The establishment of strategic collaborations with Ideal College and KMCT Arts and Science College through MOUs highlights our dedication to enhancing educational and professional opportunities through faculty exchanges and joint research initiatives.

The department has actively worked to improve academic performance and student engagement, evidenced by successful PTA meetings and constructive feedback from alumni. The diverse range of activities, from critical thinking workshops to leadership sessions, demonstrates our focus on equipping students with essential skills and practical experience. Additionally, our involvement in cultural and sports activities, coupled with a robust placement record, underscores the department's commitment to preparing students for successful careers in social work.

The department's dedication to addressing cross-cutting issues such as gender equality, human values, and environmental sustainability reflects its holistic approach to education. Overall, the year has been a testament to the department's resilience, innovation, and unwavering commitment to fostering a supportive and dynamic learning environment. Looking forward, we anticipate continued success in nurturing socially responsible and skilled professionals, further solidifying our role as a leader in social work education.
